

over each point a of the chart sit every normal displacement q and every orientation r : $x = (r, a, q)$

the two normal directions at a , mass-orthonormal, seen from the side

